ABOUT

I am a Brazilian-American living in Greenwich, CT. I have worked in the industry of Modeling, Film/TV, and commercials for over 20 years allowing me to work with top companies, A-List talent and directors. I use my social media platform to share organic material revolving around motherhood, my health lifestyle, home decor, my trips around the world and behind the scenes as a celebrity guest to major Fashion weeks and famous Film Festivals. With over half a million followers, it is important for me to also spread awareness on my nonprofit organization, Gabriela Dias Foundation who supports disadvantaged youth and their families through arts and education.

I was blessed to have had the privilege of doing what I love, and having full access to the arts and high quality education. My modeling career gave me the opportunity to work for major brands like Ralph Lauren, Colgate, Pantene, Olay, etc. I later decided to branch out my career towards filmmaking and acting which has also been a dream of mine. I enjoy the process of filmmaking, reviewing scripts, and really getting to know my roles. My latest feature "The Socialite" is now streaming on major outlets like Amazon, GooglePlay, and iTunes. A part from filmmaking some of my other hobbies include writing books (first title Beyond Beauty: A Journey to Success! now available at Barnes & Noble, Kindle, GoodReads, etc.), yoga, traveling, and most of all enjoying my time with my baby boy Brian!

I immigrated to the United States at a very young age chasing my dreams for a better life, success and to do what I love most. I have crossed many obstacles and it has not always been easy. But, with the right mindset, and being so goal-driven I always found a way to move past the bad and focus on the good.
